throughout the game and trailing late in the third quarter, the Lady Mustangs came back to secure a 48–43 victory over Sudan.

I especially want to recognize the three seniors on the team, Jordan Barncastle, Taylor Daniel and Christa Williams, for the extraordinary achievement of securing two State championships. In addition, I want to congratulate Jordan Barncastle for being named the tournament's Most Valuable Player after contributing 18 points, eight rebounds, and three steals in the championship game.

I also want to recognize Head Coach Doug Barncastle, who began coaching at Martin's Mill High School in 2005 and has led the Lady Mustangs to the State tournament all 3 years. This victory was extra special since he was coaching his daughter, Jordan Barncastle, in her last game before graduating and heading to Lubbock to play for the Texas Tech Lady Raiders. With the game falling during the week of his birthday, the victory was an answered birthday wish for Coach Barncastle.

Madam Speaker, on behalf of the Fifth District of Texas, I am honored to recognize the Martin's Mill Lady Mustangs—both coaches and players—for their talent, dedication, and exceptional performance.

CONGRATULATING THE BOROUGH OF RAMSEY, NEW JERSEY, ON ITS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. SCOTT GARRETT
OF NEW JERSEY
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, March 10, 2008

Mr. GARRETT of New Jersey. Madam Speaker, I am pleased to congratulate the borough of Ramsey, New Jersey, on its centennial celebration. Today, March 10, is the 100th anniversary of the incorporation of Ramsey.

Ramsey is located at the foothills of the Ramapo Mountains in northeast New Jersey and covers 5.9 square miles. Dutch, English, Scottish, and German settlers were among the first colonists to live in Ramsey. The Old Stone House was built as a Dutch colonial farmhouse in the 1700s, and it is still preserved today. A gristmill was erected in the mid 1780s, and six decades later a railroad station was assembled—both brought commerce and development to the area. Ramsey quickly became known as the strawberry capital, due to the large amounts of strawberries grown in the region and then shipped to other States.

Today, Ramsey is the site of six churches, three parks, four public schools, and a public library. Several scenes from The Sopranos episode "The Happy Wander" were shot at the Maple Shade Motel, and Ramsey was also a setting for scenes from the 2006 film World Trade Center. Several notable Americans have resided in Ramsey, including Ryan Grant, running back for the Green Bay Packers; Danny Aiello, a stage and film star; and Ryan McGinley, a photographer. Perhaps the most distinguished resident to call Ramsey "home" was Army Master Sergeant Charles Ernest Hosking, who received a Medal of Honor for self-sacrificially saving the lives of several of his commanders during the Vietnam war.

The borough of Ramsey is rich with historical, cultural, educational, and recreational institutions. For 100 years, Ramsey has been the cherished residence of many Americans. It is my hope that the borough of Ramsey will continue to be a vibrant community for many years to come.

CONGRATULATING PERKINS COUNTY PLAINSMEN ON WINNING CLASS C–2B NEBRASKA GIRLS BASKETBALL STATE TITLE

HON. ADRIAN SMITH OF NEBRASKA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, March 10, 2008

Mr. SMITH of Nebraska. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate the Perkins County Plainsmen on their 62 to 49 victory over Sutton to take the Class C–2B Nebraska Girls Basketball State Title on March 1, 2008. They embody the spirit of teamwork, determination, and heart, which champions display.

They finished the season unbeaten, but definitely not untested. Sutton, who allowed an average of just 35 points a game this season, gave the Plainsmen all they could handle, but came up short.

So, it is with a sense of pride that I congratulate the Perkins County Plainsmen girls' basketball team on winning this championship. This victory is the result of months and years of hard work by the players, students, and their coaches.

RECOGNIZING AND HONORING EARL LLOYD FOR BECOMING THE FIRST AFRICAN-AMERICAN TO PLAY IN THE NATIONAL BASKETBALL ASSOCIATION LEAGUE

SPEECH OF

HON. TIMOTHY V. JOHNSON OF ILLINOIS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, March 5, 2008

Mr. JOHNSON of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of Representative JIM MORAN's House resolution expressing the sense of Congress to recognize and honor Earl Lloyd for breaking the color barrier as the first African-American to play in the National Basketball Association (NBA).

In addition to Earl Lloyd's accomplishments during the 1950 season, I want to take this opportunity to also recognize the Boston Celtics franchise and legendary coach and general manager Red Auerbach for their work in the advancement and inclusion of African-Americans in the NBA.

In 1950, before Earl Lloyd became the first African-American to play in an NBA game, Chuck Cooper became the first African-American to be drafted in the NBA by the Boston Celtics in the second round of the selection process. This milestone was the first in a long list of accomplishments the Celtics organization has made during their storied history to break down the color barrier in professional sports.

In addition to drafting the first African-American player, Red Auerbach was also the first to have an all African-American starting lineup which included Bill Russell, Willie Naulls, Tom Sanders, Sam Jones and K. C. Jones. In the 1966–67 season, the Celtics would go a step further by making Bill Russell the first African-American to coach an NBA team.

I hope all of my colleagues will join me today in honoring Earl Lloyd, Chuck Cooper and all the individuals who were a part of breaking down the color barrier in professional sports.

RECOGNIZING EILEEN McGUCKIAN

HON. CHRIS VAN HOLLEN
OF MARYLAND
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, March 10, 2008

Mr. VAN HOLLEN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to express my appreciation and gratitude to Eileen McGuckian, founder of Peerless Rockville, for her 35 years of service to the cause of historic preservation.

Eileen was driven to take action in 1974, when she witnessed the demolition of the historic and beautiful Masonic Lodge in Rockville. Along with a group of like-minded community members, she formed Peerless Rockville and began raising money for the preservation of historic buildings and sites and educating the public on the importance of protecting our shared history.

Peerless Rockville has become a model of public-private partnership, whose successes have included the rescue and preservation of the 1873 B&O Railroad Station, the Montrose School and Baptist Cemetery, the Dawson farmhouse, the Grand Courtroom of the Red Brick Courthouse, and Wire Hardware, one of the few examples of 19th century commercial architecture remaining in Rockville. In addition, Peerless Rockville fulfills its educational mission by providing walking tours and history programs, and maintaining an impressive collection of maps, historic photographs, architects' drawings and other documents. These documents are an invaluable resource for local residents, students and scholars. Eileen herself made full use of this collection in her award-winning book, Rockville: Portrait of a City. Today, Rockville is a richer and more beautiful place thanks to Eileen McGuckian.

Madam Speaker, please join me in recognizing and honoring Eileen McGuckian for 35 years of dedicated and outstanding service to the city of Rockville and to Montgomery County, Maryland.

CONDEMNING THE ONGOING PALESTINIAN ROCKET ATTACKS ON ISRAELI CIVILIANS

SPEECH OF

HON. MICHAEL E. CAPUANO OF MASSACHUSETTS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, March 5, 2008

Mr. CAPUANO. Madam Speaker, I rise to explain the reasons and the scruples that led me to vote "present" on H. Res. 951.

I would note, first, that the resolution as amended and passed is more acceptable to me than the original draft. Most important to me is that the amended resolution recognizes the suffering of innocent victims on both sides of the conflict. However, I continue to believe that resolutions containing language such as
